District Retiree Celebration – Phil Oberst introduced building Principals who gave speeches in honor of the retirees in each building. Honorees were awarded pens and the group broke for refreshments before reconvening.

CIEE Global Navigator Scholarships - Christina Graves explained the various travel experiences of the LOTE students. Eastridge students were awarded up to a $6,000 scholarship through CIEE to study abroad.

NYS Seal of Biliteracy – LOTE students received scholarships, a certificate, and a seal on their diploma. In addition, 220 students received college language credit.

Reports to the Board –

School Start Times - Terri Robson and Cheryl Dobbertin discussed the pros and cons of later start times at the high school. Research suggests that later start times for high school students could improve academic performance. Other considerations include transportation, athletic schedules, and student employment.

Capital Improvement Project – John Abbott introduced Dan Pieters of LaBella Architects and together they presented the proposed scope of the 2019 Capital Project. The goal is to maintain the community’s investment in our facilities through routine maintenance. As with our past capital projects, this will be completed with no tax impact to the district residents.
